You’ve moved in, and settled in your new home on campus. Now it’s time to explore Western, and get to know London – your home for the next four years. Need to go to the grocery store? The mall? Train station? Below are some tips to help you navigate – on and off campus.

Getting around Western:

On Western’s website, you will find links to maps. They are a great tool for getting around the Main Campus and the affiliates colleges. Libraries on campus and Western residences all have their own maps, too. Maps indicating accessibility information on bus routes in London, and beyond.

LTC also has an app you can download to access the same information. The London Transit Commission (LTC) website, has all the information on the shuttle service. You can also do some trip planning on the website, by putting in your start and end points in order to figure out which route is best to get you from Point A to Point B. It also has an app you can download to access the same information.

Getting around London:

London is the largest city in southwestern Ontario, and the 14th largest in Canada. A bike pass is included in your tuition – perfect for getting around campus and beyond.

London has an extensive path system, that stretches across the city - the Thames Valley Parkway paths – and is ideal for running, cycling and walking.

There are a number of ice rinks where you can skate, too. Be sure to check it out in the Co-operators’ Park (LTC) or the London Ice House (London). If you need a cab, Uber is one option. You can also use the Greyhound Bus Lines and London Transit Commission (LTC) shuttle service, too. Be sure to check out the Co-operators’ Park (LTC) – it’s a great place to hang out while you’re waiting for your bus. There are a number of other taxi companies in London, as well. If you need to go to the hospital, University Hospital, The London Health Sciences Centre and St. Joseph’s Health Care London, are inviting applications for a 1 year full time visiting appointment as a clinical academic anesthesiologist.

GET THE SUPPORT YOU NEED

A university degree is an important investment in your future. From Canada’s most comprehensive O-Week to ongoing individual assistance, Western is here to support you every step of the way throughout your academic career. When you graduate, you will be prepared to conquer the next phase of your life, whether that is employment, graduate school or something completely different. Learn more about the services we have available to help you reach your goals.

The following centres and services are available to help you determine your next steps toward reaching your goals.

Student Central is the main front office for the Office of the Registrar and Student Services Support Group, offering a wide variety of services for current students, prospective students, and alumni. Services are offered in person, online, and by telephone. Visit the website for information on accessing in-person and telephone services, including office hours of operation (success.uwo.ca/general-information/index.html).

The Student Development Centre offers programs and services designed to help you discover the best that you can be, including leadership development and career exploration opportunities, skill development, mentoring, community engagement opportunities, and social networks — just to name a few. The Student Success Centre will help you become actively engaged in learning inside and outside the classroom. (success.uwo.ca/uccesscentre).

The International and Exchange Student Centre provides services to international and exchange students at Western, offering peer counseling, information, programs, and events (success.uwo.ca/excstudent).

The following centres and services are available to help you reach your goals.

Who’s quarterbacking the management of your retirement assets?

"Tried from Western in 1997 and Mitch On and his team have managed my funds very well indeed since then. He has made consistently good recommendations, kept me very well informed and I am completely satisfied with his performance over the last 15 years." — Dr. Richard Butler, Professor Emeritus, University of Western Ontario

Join a club or create your own

Meet new people and become more involved in your Western community as a club member, or join a club’s executive team to gain interpersonal and professional skills by organizing and planning different activities for your club. Can’t find the club for you? Start your own. The USC welcomes new clubs to campus every year! For more information visit www.mitchorr.com.

Faculty-specific clubs

As a faculty across campus, offer faculty-specific student clubs, groups and teams such as student associations, program-specific societies, student support groups and more. Visit your faculty website for more information.

A CLUB FOR EVERYONE

Clubs are a fundamental aspect of student life on campus. Run by the University Students’ Council (USC), Western has more than 10,000 members participating in 191 clubs across campus.

The Clubs Community is the easiest way to get involved at Western. Joining a club opens up many opportunities for you to enjoy a balance between academic life and extracurricular activities. From community volunteering and philanthropy clubs, to political, cultural and musical interests, if you have a passion, we have a club for you.

Learning without Borders

Spread your wings and discover the world while earning your degree at Western.

Opportunities Awards, and a new International Learning Award provide support for students going abroad in their third year. Additional scholarships programs provide unique experiences in particular countries, regions or institutions.

Global and Interultural Engagement Honor
Give your degree global appeal with Western’s Global and Intercultural Engagement Honor recognizing students who have engaged in both academic and extracurricular activities with a global or intercultural focus. You can accumulate points during your time at Western through academic engagement or abroad, and then apply to receive the award.

A World of Choice
Western’s International Exchange Program gives you the opportunity to study at one of 130 universities in 39 countries, including Australia, China, Denmark, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Japan, Korea, Mexico, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Costa Rica, Ecuador, England, Vietnam, the United Kingdom and the United States.

• Pay your tuition to Western and earn credits toward your degree.
• Scholarships are available to support your international experience
• Many partner universities offer courses taught in English.

Start planning your international experience now by exploring all the options at:

Learning without Borders Spread your wings and discover the world while earning your degree at Western. Whether you want to study, volunteer, engage in an internship, work abroad or participate in international learning at home, we offer a wide range of opportunities to enhance your educational experience into your university career. For example, you can study for a semester in Singapore, uncover traces of the Roman Empire while exploring global digs in northern England; intern at a multinational company in India; participate in a summer opera program in Italy or volunteer with a community engaged learning program in Costa Rica.

• Develop intercultural skills
• Learn a new language
• Apply your learning in a new setting
• Become a global citizen

More than $300,000 in financial support is available annually through the Global Learning without Borders.

Spread your wings and discover the world while earning your degree at Western.

Your destination options include:

• Academic exchange
• Summer study abroad
• Field course
• Alternative Spring Break
• Community engaged learning
• Internships
• Research
• Other University-led experiences

*Experiences must be Western-approved activities. Full requirements online.

Eight-week research project in China during second year

“My summer in Tianjin, China was an amazing mixture of working on environmentally-friendly solvents used for oil extraction from oil sands, travelling the country and really getting immersed in the Chinese culture. These aspects had a profound impact on my remaining undergraduate years after returning to Western.”

No matter your residence, you’re steps away from class, libraries, the state-of-the-art Western Student Recreation Centre and the University Community Centre.

Getting Involved and Growing Your Skills
While your schooling is important, don’t get completely lost in your studies. Expand your personal and professional skills through involvement in numerous academic, social, cultural and recreational activities. Get involved in your Residents’ Council, for example, or look into becoming a Residence Student Staff member. The Academic Edge Programme is in each residence and provides resources, academic programming, event programming, study skills workshops and much more to help you succeed. Oh yeah, you’re going to have to study.

Clean and Cared-for Facilities
Western has continually been about upgrading and renovating the residences to ensure you enjoy high-quality, well-equipped accommodations. Look around. Not bad, huh? Common areas and shared washrooms on your floor and throughout each building are cleaned every day, but remember you’re not the only one using the space, so feel free to help with the tidying every now and then – it won’t hurt you! Your residence also provides regular room cleaning. It’s just like you’re still at home.

Focus on Safety
Just like when you were living at home, your residence is all about safety. Access to buildings and/or the residential areas is restricted 24/7 by a locked door controlled by card access. Post Desk staff are just a phone call away and residence student staff live in each floor and are always on-call during evenings and weekends.

Memories to Last a Lifetime
Check out all the faces in your residence. You’re likely looking at someone who will be one of your best friends for life. Meet new people, make connections with hundreds of other students and engage with the greater Western community.

Living on campus puts you at the centre of everything. No matter your residence, you’re steps away from class, libraries, the state-of-the-art Western Student Recreation Centre and the University Community Centre (UCC). Bus stops are located close to every residence so you can get where you need to go in an instant.

Living in residence at Western offers more than just a place to eat and sleep. Now that you’re here, take a look around. Residence life engages and connects you to the university community and fosters your growth as a leader. There are ample opportunities for leadership and involvement in a range of activities. Go seek them out.

Healthy Dining
So, you want to eat healthy? No problem. The flexible meal plan in your residence gives you easy access to dining halls and campus eateries, plus many off-campus meal partners. The residence chefs prepare a wide selection of food in house, so there’s always something new to try. Allergies? Dietary restrictions? Again, no problem. Packaging and nutritional content is easily available online for all menu items, so you can know before you go. Why not work with one of the residence’s Nutrition Managers in making healthy food choices? That’s what they’re there for – vegetarian, gluten-free and nut-free options? We’ve got you covered.

The Academic Edge Programme is in each residence and provides resources, academic programming, event programming, study skills workshops and much more to help you succeed. Oh yeah, you’re going to have to study.

KICKSTART YOUR CAREER WITH WESTERN ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Western Entrepreneurship is a vibrant ecosystem that marries unrivaled strengths of the university setting with the needs of the next generation of entrepreneurs.

We offer experiential opportunities to enable you to advance your ideas outside the traditional classroom (e.g., hackathons, startup summits, workshops, bootcamps, networking events or pitch competitions). We have also integrated entrepreneurial programming throughout our curriculum, and across the campus at large – creating room for you to innovate, create and test prototypes.

Western Entrepreneurship is built on several foundational programs and the strength of the Ivey Business School. The breadth of programs include Ivey’s Pierre L. Morissette Institute for Entrepreneurship, the QuantumShift™ Program for high-growth entrepreneurs, Propel Entrepreneurship (including Propel’s Summer Incubator program), Western Accelerator and WORLDiscoveries.

Since Fall 2014, approximately 450 student-led startups have received assistance through Western Entrepreneurship. More than 100 of these companies are continuing to grow and contribute to the Canadian economy.

PROPEL YOUR IDEAS. ACCELERATE YOUR SUCCESS

Western Entrepreneurship is here to help committed entrepreneurs build pathways to success. In the heart of campus, Propel offers co-working space, seed-funding, world-class mentorship, training programs, events and workshops for startups at all stages of growth. The Propel Summer Incubator – a sale-focused incubator program for high-potential entrepreneurs during the summer months – offers innovative programming encouraging startups to grow and reach new milestones in their venture.

The Western Accelerator is also available to provide an intense, rapid and immersive education for prospective entrepreneurs. Successful accelerator applicants receive a monthly stipend, programming and educational sessions, bi-monthly networking events with successful entrepreneurs, industry experts, investors and service providers, and the opportunity to participate in a pitch day at the end of the program.

Companies on the Rise

Booch Organic Kombucha handcrafts authentically brewed kombucha tea in small batches under the close personal attention of brew master and owner Shannon Slade, HNS’10. Together with her husband, Shawn Slade, MSc’14, Shannon launched Booch in May 2015. Rockwell Razors designs and manufactures disruptive men’s shaving technology, including razors that are customizable and adjustable for any and every man. Officially launched in 2014 by co-founders Gareth Everard, BSc’15, and Morgan Nordstrom, Rockwell Razors was the largest crowd-funded razor of all time on Kickstarter. Today, they offer their clients a shaving revolution with no irritation, no cartridges and no subscriptions when ordering online. rockwellrazors.com

Coastline Market connects retailers to fresh, traceable seafood direct from local harvesters. Co-founder and Western student Robert Kirstiuk has found a way to help his partners bypass costly middlemen and physical infrastructure like warehouses and cold storages. By eliminating up to six middlemen from the supply chain, consumers get the freshest product at less than wholesale cost. coastlinemarket.com

CONDUCT RESEARCH WITH IMPACT

From the concept of insulin in 1920 to ongoing progress in human clinical trials of an HIV vaccine, Western continues to lead efforts in addressing the world’s largest problems.

As an undergraduate student, you can participate in research and take your ambition to another level, apply for research fellowships and awards with various funding councils, and complete an internship or co-op with industry or one of Western’s research centres or institutes.

A recent study conducted by Destiny Allen-Green, an Honours Double Major in Physical Geography and Geology, shows the potential of using sediment cores to understand past environmental changes. Allen-Green used X-ray powder diffractometry to analyze the mineral composition of sediment layers from South Bay, Manitoulin Island, Ontario, and found evidence of past climate changes in the region.

CONNECT THE CLASSROOM TO REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCES

Western offers many opportunities inside, and outside, the classroom for you to apply your academic knowledge in real world settings. With experiential learning you can complement your studies with relevant, rewarding experiences that help you develop transferable skills and refine your career options.

Whether it’s a workshop, a club, an international learning experience or a leadership position, you can track your experiences – and learning – using this online tool. Activities connect to 10 core areas of development, including Career Preparation, Commitment to Learning, Communication, Diversity, Engaging in the Arts, Global Awareness, Health and Wellness, Leadership, Self-Awareness and Social Responsibility.

With experiential learning you can complement your studies with relevant, rewarding experiences that help you develop transferable skills and refine your career options.

Internship & Co-op

Gain the relevant knowledge and skills required to enter a particular employment sector. Participate in paid or unpaid, short term or long term, local or international placements for academic credit or a non-credit course. Check with your faculty or the Student Success Centre to see if there is an option for your degree program. You can also search for internship and co-op opportunities on Western’s international learning website.

Job Shadow

Test drive a specific job or employment sector to see if it is a good fit for your skills, interests and career plans. Job shadow connects you with future employers in informal – but meaningful – ways and provides you with a ‘sneak peek’ into a work world that lies just beyond graduation.

Fieldwork

Integrate theory and skills learned in the classroom into real-world environments. Mainly concentrated in the natural and social sciences such as Biology, Earth Sciences, Geology, Anthropology and Archaeology, fieldwork allows you to work in teams to improve your communication, team work and problem-solving skills.

Community Engaged Learning (CEL)

Link your classroom education with community-based projects and see your learning come to life through CEL classes, in most disciplines. Build your resume through hands-on learning that makes a tangible impact in the community. Get involved with non-profits during your first week at Western with Orientation Serves and continue throughout your time at Western with the Western Serves Network.

MEET THE AFFILIATES

Western has three affiliate colleges: Brescia University College, Susan Mumm, principal; King's University College, David Sylvester, principal; and Huron University College, Barry Craig, principal. While each offers a unique university experience, students are also encouraged to take classes and enjoy the resources at Western’s Main Campus. A transit service is also available to shuttle students between the affiliates and Main Campus.

Brescia, Huron and King’s, as Affiliated University Colleges, contribute to the dynamic student experience at Western. Students enrolled at these unique communities, all within steps of Western’s Main Campus, enjoy the benefits of a small campus experience while having access to main campus.

Brescia University College
Founded in 1919, Brescia is Canada’s only women’s university. With a population of approximately 1,300, Brescia’s approach to education is student-centred and personalized. Brescia offers small classes, personal attention from faculty and staff, interactive teaching and engaging leadership opportunities.

STAY SAFE ON CAMPUS

Every student, faculty and staff member has the right to study, work and learn in a safe environment. A variety of services and resources are available to promote and maintain a safe and respectful learning environment.

Campus Community Police Service (CCPS)

Western is patrolled every day by professionally-trained special constables, backed with the same authority on campus as city police. CCPS is involved in activities ranging from crime prevention to fire safety.

Emergency Preparedness

There are 21 emergency phones located throughout campus, so you are only a few seconds away from a direct link to campus police should you require assistance. Digital signage is used to disseminate important messages to all members of the Western community during emergency situations.

Two weather sirens are located on campus. In case of a weather emergency, the sirens will sound and voice commands with instructions for action will follow.

uwo.ca/weather_siren.html

Student Emergency Response Team (SERT)

SERT is a 24-hour, on-campus, volunteer student emergency response team. CCPS dispatches a co-ed SERT team of three to any medical emergency on campus, with an average response time of two minutes.
